

EAST LYME BOARD OF SELECTMEN
PUBLIC HEARING RE: AN AMENDMENT TO THE HISTORIC PROPERTIES
ORDINANCE
FEBRUARY 19, 2014
MINUTES

PRESENT: Paul M. Formica, Mark Nickerson, Holly Cheeseman, Rose Ann Hardy, Kevin Seery, Rob Wilson.

Mr. Formica called the Public Hearing to order at 7:35 p.m. noting that this hearing's notice had been published in The Day.

Town Attorney Tracy Collins stated that this is the final step in having the Samuel Smith House become an historic property in the Town of East Lyme and once acted upon, the ordinance will be amended.

Marvin Schutt of 29 N. Edgewood Road identified himself as President of the Friends of the Samuel Smith House and thanked Luane Lange and the Historic Properties Commission members for processing the paperwork and obtaining required approvals for the Samuel Smith House and Property, Inc. to be preserved in perpetuity by a required Ordinance. (Attachment A).

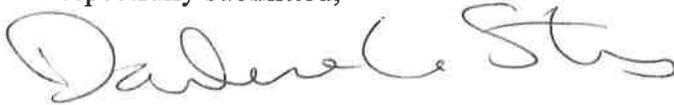

There was not further comment.

MOTION (1)

Mr. Wilson moved to close the public hearing at 7:38 p.m.

Seconded by Mr. Seery. Motion passed 6-0.

Respectfully submitted,

Darlene C. Stevens, Recording Secretary

FILED IN EAST LYME
CONNECTICUT
Feb 20 2014 AT 10:05 AM/PM
Walter J. Adams, Jr.
EAST LYME TOWN CLERK

J.H. A

My Name is MARVIN SCHUTT

2/19/2014

I live at 29 NORTH EDGEWOOD ROAD, NIAN TIC CT 06357

I am President of The Friends of Samuel Smith House and Property, Inc.

I have 2 statements to make as follows:

“The Friends” thank President Luane Lange and Members of the Historic Properties Commission for processing the paper work and obtaining required approvals for Samuel Smith House and Property, Inc. to be preserved in perpetuity by a required Ordinance.

I can assure you that the House and Property are in good hands such as it was when the Thomas Lee House was saved more than 100 years ago by people like us.