Mr. Nickerson called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m., and led the Pledge of Allegiance.

3. Watch a student produced special file honoring Mr. Floyd Welch, Pearl Harbor Survivor, and Mr. Harry Danos, Battle of Iwo Jim Survivor; and honor said guests for their service to the community.

Mr. Nickerson welcomed and thanked everyone for attending this special presentation to honor these brave and honorable men. He introduced the two Veterans being honored, and handed the presentation over to Rose Ann Hardy.

Ms. Hardy introduced her students, Victoria Chong, Jack McDonald and Jack Mountain, and gave a little background on how the students came to produce this film. She then turned the presentation over to the students, who took turns reading a letter from Mr. Peck, who was unable to attend the presentation, and then they introduced and played the film. At the completion of the film, both Mr. Welch and Mr. Danos shared some stories and experiences with the audience.

Ms. Holly Cheeseman thanked both gentlemen for their service, and then she read and presented to each gentleman a proclamation of honor from both herself and Mr. Paul Formica, who could attend this evening.

Mr. Mark Nickerson thanked both gentlemen for their service and for sharing their stories with us. He then called up Kristina Fenton, a recent graduate from East Lyme High School, stating that as we honor our Town's oldest Veteran's of their respective battles, we should also honor our Town's newest sworn-in Service Member.
