Meeting opened at 7:00PM

PUBLIC DELEGATIONS: None.

MINUTES: Review and approval of April 2017 minutes was postponed until June meeting due to problems with secretary Bengtson's computer. Motion by M. Christensen, second by J. Bengtson. Unanimous.

CORRESPONDENCE: A gift of a blanket and brown jug. The blanket with the initials M.J.H. 1872 belonged to and was donated by the Way Family. The brown jug was found in Pattagansett Lake and was donated by Gregg Grippo.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Demolition Delay Ordinance: Edits to the Ordinance arrived by email at 7:00PM tonight and were reviewed by the Commission. See attached.
- House Inventory- Mark Christensen suggested that the original part of the Flanders School was worth preserving and we should consider putting it on the National Register of Historic Places. He agreed to research this and we will discuss at June meeting. Teve Marks=Hamilton suggested adding Crescent Beach area houses to Inventory. He agreed to look at beach house dates and discuss at June meeting.
- Archeological Survey Project, Bridge Art, Flow Chart, - No reports.
- M. Christenson reported that the Bike ad BBQ website is being updated.
- Cemetery Association – No report.
- The Samuel Smith House – Now has an active website, SamuelSmithFarmstead.org
- The Smith Harris House – Will have its annual plant sale on May 6, 1028.
- The Thomas Lee House - Beginning an addition to the existing barn.
- Connecticut Collections - East Lyme Historic Properties Digital Management System – The sequence of events for preparing for our collections to be archived in Connecticut Collections between January 2019 and December 2019 requires that the individual houses and archives work with CT Collections to digitize their current data prior to the start of 2019.
