2019 Budget Inputs - we are asking for what we had last year. We would like $300. more for digitizing.

New Business

Reports:

Bike and Barbeque - meeting with Dave Putnam - B Park & Rec will be taking over the project which will be going to White Gate Farms because of too much traffic in Flanders. The profit will still be split among the four historic groups.

Brookside Farm Museum: no report

Cemetery Association - no report

Samuel Smith Farmstead - Sunday open house will go from 1-3 instead of 12-3. They are planning two events this year. They will be asking $6,500 from 2019 Town budget

Thomas Lee House: The lecture series was held at Kiatic Community Church and was attended by about 70 people. The Barn is being done by Robbie Anger and will be done in the spring.

Adjournment was at 8:15
