Call to Order

Delegations: DR. Lindsey Rush participated via ZOOM, is going to help with our community garden focus

Harbor Management report: Tim Londregan is in litigation, it is the opinion of Joan Nichols of the Ct Farm Bureau that he will win.

Community Garden: Alan Scott has agreed that the Flanders Church will be the holder of funds, as it is a 501C3. He is talking with the head of the EL Cemetery to see if we can use their land that abuts the cemetery driveway. The Sam Smith Farmstead has volunteered 20 small plots that have fencing and irrigation.

Open Farm Day at the Farmstead on July 19, 2020. Kyle is talking with Zagray's to get antique tractors for show.

Educational seminars- Tom did two Composting Seminars. The one at our library saw 70 people, with the Waterford library saw 35 people. The next seminars have been cancelled due to the COVID virus.

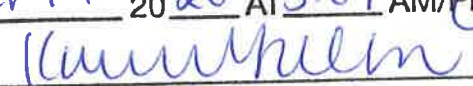

Mark and Kyle met with the Waterford RTM who is interested in starting an ag commission in Waterford.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy D. Kalal
